Helping Our Communities Stay Safe from Scams

FMUB staff, Becca Robbins and Tammy Lenz, recently had the opportunity to present "How to Stay Safe from Scams" to the Columbus Rotary, sharing practical tips to help individuals recognize fraud attempts, protect personal information, and respond to suspicious activity.

As fraud and scam attempts continue to evolve, FMUB remains committed to helping educate and protect the communities we serve. If your organization is interested in hosting a similar presentation, please email us at marketing@fmub.bank.

Financial Wellness Matters

Mya Taylor-Burzynski and Vicki Buss represented FMUB at the Lodi Wellness Expo, sharing how small, consistent habits — such as saving regularly, even in small amounts — can make a meaningful difference in long-term financial wellness and overall well-being.

Important Digital Banking Notice

As we complete the transition of former American Bank customer accounts into FMUB's core processing platform, temporary interruptions to digital banking services will occur during the weekend of July 10–13, 2026.

FMUB Online and Mobile Banking services are expected to remain available for much of the weekend; however, some interruptions will be necessary. We appreciate your patience as we complete this important transition and officially welcome our new friends to Farmers & Merchants Union Bank.
