Protect Yourself from Scams & Fraud

Join Columbus Police Chief Dennis Weiner and FMUB Bank Secrecy Act (BSA) Officer Shaina Hannaman to learn how to recognize common scams, avoid becoming a victim of fraud, and what to do if you think you've been scammed.

Monday, December 14 | 6:00 pm
Columbus Community Center
125 N. Dickason Blvd., Columbus

Presented by FMUB in partnership with the City of Columbus and Columbus Police Department.

Light refreshments will be provided.
No registration required.

Share the Joy

This holiday season, all FMUB locations will collect new, unwrapped toys for children in our communities. Donations will be distributed through local charities, keeping toys in the communities where they were collected. Please drop off your donations by December 11 to help ensure every gift arrives in time for Christmas!

2027 Calendars Available

Stop by your local FMUB branch to pick up a complimentary 2027 calendar while supplies last.

3.2 Tons Shredded—More to Come in 2027

Thank you to everyone who joined us for our fall shred event in Downtown Columbus! Together, our community safely shredded 3.2 tons of documents while also supporting the Columbus/Fall River Food Pantry with food donations and more than $350 in monetary donations.

We're excited to expand this free community service in 2027, with shred events planned for Beaver Dam, Sauk City, Janesville, and Columbus. Dates and details will be announced as we get closer to each event. We look forward to seeing you—and your boxes of paperwork—in 2027!

Celebrating Tracy McNulty's 33 Years at FMUB

After 33 years at FMUB, Tracy McNulty has retired. Throughout her career, she embraced the many changes in banking, adapting to new technologies while becoming a trusted resource for her coworkers. Known for her exceptional work ethic, wealth of knowledge, and willingness to go the extra mile, Tracy was always ready to lend a helping hand.

She also made the workplace a little brighter through holiday decorations, special treats, and the friendships she built along the way. We thank Tracy for 33 wonderful years and wish her all the best in retirement!
